

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

ON THE THEME:

GLOBAL LABOR: Evolving Responses to the Challenge of International Frontiers - Spatial Reconfigurations and Social Transformations

Schedule: December 12th to the 16th 2022 + +
at CRDS in Saint-Louis, Senegal + + + + +

+ + + + +

PROGRAM

Sunday, December 11th and Monday, December 12th 2022

20 h-24 h	Welcome at the International Airport of Ndiass and help settle in the hotel Queens of Africa in Somone
10 h 00-12 h-13 h	Breakfast and lunch
13 h-16 h	Transfer from Somone to Saint-Louis
16 h-17 h	Arrive and help settle in hotels
17 h-18 h 30	Visit of CRDS Museum & City tour en calèche (in a carriage)

*Cocktail dinner and Launch of Marcel van der Linden's book
Travailleurs du Monde - Paris, Karthala & re: work, 2022*

Speeches:

19 h-21 h 30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Babacar Fall, IEA Saint-Louis, Senegal Kalidou Diallo, Cheikh Anta Diop University Dakar, Senegal, Union Leader & Former Minister of National Education of Senegal Andreas Eckert, Humboldt University, Berlin, Allemagne Marcel van der Linden, Author
--------------	--

Tuesday, December 13th 2022

9 h-11 h	Opening ceremony of the conference and inauguration by Monsieur Mody Guiro, Secretary General of the National Confederation of Workers of Senegal (CNTS) Moderator: Kalidou Diallo, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar, Senegal
11 h 00-11 h 15	Break-coffee/Tea
	Session N° 1: Theme: Labor and frontiers in the age of globalization Moderator: Rama Salla Dieng, University of Edinburgh, Scotland & IEA Saint-Louis, Senegal Discussant: John Barzman, University of Le Havre, France Panelists:
11 h 15-13 h 30	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Babacar Buuba Diop, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar, Senegal: "Pyramids and Wells Across Borders: the Work of Men and Women, Youth and Adults Across Ages and Countries" 2. Rosa Kösters, Amsterdam, Netherlands: "Between Solidarity and Fragmentation: The Consequences of and Reactions to Changing Labor Relations at the Dutch Shop Floor, 1970-2020" 3. Aliou Sène, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar, Senegal: "Spatial Recomposition and Reconfiguration of Socio-Economic Activities in the Two Matams Across the Border Between Senegal and Mauritania (1969-2009)"
13 h 30-15 h 00	Break-lunch Session N° 2: Theme: Workplace frontiers and social transformations Moderator: Wilma Goppel, Independent Scholar, Senegal & Netherlands Discussant: Raquel Varela, University of Nova of Lisbon, Portugal Panelists: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Rama Salla Dieng, University of Edinburgh, Scotland & IEA Saint-Louis, Senegal: "Genealogies of Racial Capitalism: The Centrality of Labour in Historical and Contemporary Land Rushes in Northern Senegal"

15 h 00-18 h 00

2. Nohan Sidibe, University of San Pedro, Ivory Coast: "Women's Work in Côte d'Ivoire under Restriction, Perversion and Disillusionment: The Case of Domestic Workers in the Autonomous District of Abidjan through a Comparative Study of African and Lebanese Households (1960-2022)"

3. David A. Vázquez, University of Autónoma de Coahuila, Mexico: "From global to local and vice-versa. World War I and its Impact on Mexican Sugar Beet Workers in California, 1917-1918"

4. Flora Bajard & Maya Leclercq, CNRS-LEST, Aix-en-Provence, France: "Activity and Employment Cooperatives in France as a New Collective Organization of Self-employed Workers in the 21st century. Scope and Stakes of Social Protection Embedded in the Employment Contract"

Wednesday, December 14th 2022

Session N° 3: Theme: Frontiers in the face of international labor migration

Moderator: Marcel van der Linden, International Institute of Social History, Amsterdam, Netherlands

Discussant: Prabhu Mohapatra, University de Delhi, India

Panelists:

1. John Barzman, University of Le Havre, France:
"Borders on the Waterfront: Legitimate Job-seekers and Intruders over Two Centuries in Le Havre"

2. Sharmila Shrivastava, Hansraj College, University of Delhi, (Delhi) India: "A New Frontier for Labour and Law: A Case Study of 19th Century Mysore Coffee Plantation Labour"

3. Dennis Galvan University of Oregon, (Oregon) United States & Jean Faye, Centre College (Kentucky) United States: "New Entanglements of Subsistence Labor in Rural Senegal: Remittances, Ecosystem Reinvestment, and Women's Control of Public Health"

11 h 00-11 h 15

Break-coffee/Tea

Session N° 4: Theme: The Crisis in reproduction/care work/care economy, and the response of company workers

Moderator: Yousoupha Mbargane Guissé, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar, Senegal

Discussant: Andreas Eckert, Humboldt University, Berlin, Germany

Panelists:

1. Madhavi Jha, Janki Devi Memorial College University of Delhi, India:
"Health and disability: Finding and reflections of Indentured Lives in the Overseas Colonies c1834-1920"

2. Amadou Tidiane Mballo, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar, Senegal: "Impacts of the Mining Activity of the Taïba Phosphate Company (Senegal) on Habitat and Agriculture."

11 h 15-13 h 30

3. Jori Lewis, Independent Writer of Adi Journal, United States:
"A Story of Conquest and a Crop that Changed History in West Africa: Slaves for Peanuts"

4. Raquel Varela, University of Nova of Lisbon, Portugal:
"Nationalism and Union Internationalism: The Case of the DURA Company (Portugal, Germany)"

13 h 30-14 h 30

Break/lunch

Session N° 5: Theme: The culture and the transformation of industries in the face of globalization

Moderator: Ahmet Bachir Diop, IPAR, Senegal

Discussant: Mamoudou Sy, University of Sine Saloum Elhadj Ibrahima Niasse, Kaffrine, Senegal

Panelists:

1. Richard Roberts, Stanford University (California), United States: "Resiliency and Transformation in the Handicraft Textile Industry in the French Soudan, 1890s-1930s: Global Supply Chains and the Social Organization of Production"

2. Dieynaba Barry, Jacobs University, Germany: "The Survival Strategies of Office du Niger Women: Cotton Cultivation Fields During the 1960 and 1970s"

3. Sven Beckert, Harvard University (Massachusetts), United States: "Cotton on the Global History"

4. Isaie Dougnon, Fordham University (New York), United States: "Forge and Marketplace in Bamako: Blacksmiths' Migration and their Identities in Transition"

Session N° 6: Theme: Trials of maritime borders

Moderator: Gougna Niang, National Confederation of Senegalese Workers

Discussant: Ababacar Gaye Fall, IEA Saint-Louis, Senegal

Panelists:

1. Prerna Agarwal, University of Göttingen, Germany et Max Weber Stiftung India Branch Office, (New Delhi) India: "Labour, Mobility and Partition: Maritime Workers and the Drawing of Frontiers in Twentieth Century Bengal"

2. Laura Channing, Durham University & Bronwen Everill, University of Cambridge, (London), England: "Casual Labor and Household Strategies in an African Port"

3. Hilary J. Jones, University of Kentucky, (Kentucky) United States: "From Martinique to Senegal: Slavery, Deportation and a New Labor Frontier in the French Atlantic World"

Abdoulaye Sène, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar, Senegal: "Fishermen in West Africa: Mobility and Cross-border Challenges"

14 h 30-16 h 30

17 h 00- 18 h 30

Thursday, December 15th 2022

Session N° 7: Theme: The Covid-19 pandemic and the redrawing of labor frontiers

Moderator: Maty Ndiaye Sy, IEA Saint-Louis

Discussant: Rama Salla Dieng, University of Edinburgh, Scotland & IEA Saint-Louis, Senegal

Panelists:

1. Kwasi Adu AMANKWA, CSI/Afrique: "The Covid-19 Pandemic and the Recomposition of Labor Boundaries"

2. Hélène André, ILO Geneva, "Covid-19 impact on the organization of work"

3. Kalidou Sy, University Gaston Berger, Saint-Louis, Senegal: "What Covid-19 does to the University. Semiotic Anthropology"

4. Moustapha SÈYE, IFAN CAD, University Cheikh Anta Diop, Dakar, Senegal / Cheikh Anta Diop University Dakar Senegal: "The Work of Cultural Actors in the Face of Covid-19"

5. Ndèye Sokhna Cissé, IFAN CAD, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar, Senegal: "The Work of Health Care Professionals in the Face of Covid-19 Vaccination"

9 h 00-10 h 30

Session N° 8: Theme: The COVID-19 pandemic and the redrawing of labor frontiers (continued)

Moderator: Maty Ndiaye Sy, IEA Saint-Louis, Senegal

Discussant: Rokhaya Daba Fall, GAD/LARTES

Panelists:

- 10 h 45-12 h 15
1. Rokhaya Cissé, IFAN CAD, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar Senegal: "Domestic Work Sharing During the Lockdown"
 2. Landry Bogui Niava, Koffi Kra Valérie, IFAN CAD, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar, Senegal: "Covid-19 and Vulnerable Households in Côte d'Ivoire"
 3. Abdou Salam Fall, IFAN CAD, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar, Senegal : "Small and Medium Companies in Senegal's Southern and Eastern Regions and Covid-19"
 4. Soufianou Moussa, IFAN CAD, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar, Senegal: "Employment Loss and Opportunity During the Covid-19 Pandemic"
 5. Mamadou Diallo, CSI, "A new social contract: the major demand of the workers of the World".

12 h 15-12 h 30 Break-coffee/Tea

Session N° 9: Theme: Autochtone, youth, and aging population in the labor market

Moderator: Ibrahima BAO, University of Gaston Berger, Saint-Louis, Senegal

Discussant: Isaie Dougnon, Fordham University, (New York), United States

Panelists:

- 12 h 30-14 h 00
1. Gafou Diop, Dakar Child and Family Guidance Center (CEGID), Senegal: "The Fight Against Child Labor in Senegal: History, Controversies and Challenges, 1990-2020"
 2. Shreya Bhardwaj, Charles University (Prague), Czech Republic: "Ethnic Economies in the Czech Republic: The Case of Young Muslim Migrant Men and Their Bodies as Sites of Exploitation"
 3. Fadel Soubiane Bah, University of N'Gaoundéré, Cameroon: "Issues of Transnational Religious Mobility in Islam and the Issue of Youth Employment in the Programs of Religious Institutions in Cameroon"
 4. Mamoudou Sy, University of Sine Saloum El hadj Ibrahima Niasse, Kaffrine, Senegal : "Police Work in the City of Saint Louis from 1789 to 1959: Issues and Mutations"

14 h 00-15 h 00 Break/Lunch

Session N° 10: Mobility, computerization, and transformation of the world of labor

Moderator: Pape Touty Makhtar Sow, IEA Saint-Louis

Discussant: Abdoul Aziz Camara, National Confederation of Senegalese Workers

Panelists:

- 15 h 00-17 h 30
1. Julie Kleinman, Fordham University, (New York) United States: "From Migrant Worker to Associative Activist: New Forms of Work and Social Identity of Migrants Returning to Mali"
 2. Demba Moussa Dembelé, The African Research and Cooperation for Endogenous Development Support (ARCADE), Senegal: "Why have States Failed in Youth Employment Policies?"
 3. Ndongo Sylla, Rosa Luxembourg Foundation, Senegal: "Does Decent Wage Employment have a Future in Africa?"
 4. Mouhamadou Lamine Badji, National Confederation of Senegalese Workers: "Digitalization in the World of Work and its Consequences on Employment."

16 h 30-16 h 45	Break-coffee/Tea
18 h 00-19 h 30	Cultural Activity: Showing of films on labor at the French Institut in Saint Louis, Senegal

Friday, December 16th 2022

Session N° 11: A day dedicated to young researchers on the theme:
The global history of labor; methodical approaches and presentations of case studies
Moderator: Babacar Buuba Diop, University Cheikh Anta Diop, Dakar, Senegal
Panelists:

1. Andreas Eckert, Humboldt University, Berlin, Germany,
2. Yousoupha Mbargane Guissé, University Cheikh Anta Diop, Dakar, Senegal

11 h 30-11 h 15	Break Tea/Coffee Session N° 12: Presentation of works by researchers and doctorates: State of their careers/paths Moderator: Valy Faye, University Cheikh Anta Diop, Dakar, Senegal 1. Ablaye Diouf, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar, Senegal "Youth Employability in Senegal from 1960 to 2015 - Historical and Analytical Approach to Education and Training Policy" 2. Abdou Kadry Mané, LARTES/IFAN-UCAD, Senegal: "Cross-border Dynamics and Food Security in Senegal: The Cashew Nut Industry in the Fogny-Kombo (Kataba Commune, Casamance)" 3. Mamadou Khouma, IEA Saint-Louis, Senegal: "Borders and Socio-economic Transformations: Comparative Approaches between Latin America and West Africa"
13 h 30-14 h 00	Closing of the Conference